Barbara Jordan:

- Barbara Jordan spent the first 25 years of her adult life as a world class player and coach in Womens' Fastpitch Softball. Her career started off in Southern California as an All American Collegiate player, then to the select USA Softball Team, and finally into the Professional League. Eventually Barb became a top tier Division II College Head Softball Coach. Barb's other special talent is her work as an on-air Softball Analyst for CSS, ACC Network, Fox Sports and other media outlets.
- Barbara Jordan has traveled the world as an elite athlete, coach, instructor, and broadcaster. Throughout those travels she has employed a unique keen awareness, acquired through being a victim of predatorial violence. Always Bev provides the platform through which Barbara is able to share her passion of educating others on the importance of awareness and vigilance in everyday life. Her commitment to this cause has already positively affected many lives.
