Monologue:

I ate them. That's right. I ate the divorce papers. I ate them with ketchup. And they were good...gooooood. You probably want me to get serious about our divorce. The thing is you always called our marriage a joke. So let's use logic here: If A, we never had a serious marriage then B, we can't have a serious divorce. No. We can't. The whole thing's a farce, a farce that tastes good with ketchup.
